POOCH ALERT

What's worse than the thought of losing your pet? How about losing your pet when you're on vacation? You can put your mind at ease while you and your pup are trotting from coast to coast this summer with the clever pet tagging system, PetFinder (around $13). This high tech tag is anything but high maintenance and makes it as easy to find your pet if he or she is ever lost. The tag uses a simple phone system to make it easy for someone who retrieves your lost pet to get in contact with you, while protecting your privacy at the same time. You program up to three contact numbers in the PetFinder system and when your pet is found, the number on the tag is called, the identifications number is entered and just like that-- you and your pooch will be back on the beach in no time. For more information log onto www.finderproducts.com.
